Summer 1991, Issue #2 This Week on WRMC Monday, July 8

Thanks for picking up this season's second issue of This Week on WRMC. Each week we'll be issuing a new guide, describing any special programming on a show-by-show basis (as on the reverse). We hope that you will find WRMC a pleasing alternative form of entertainment this summer--this guide will make us more accessible to you.

We're in our third week of full-time (7am-12 midnight) summer programming. Below you will find the current schedule. You'll note that there are still some openings in the morning and early afternoon--for the time, these are being covered by the full-time student office staff. They are filling up, but we still need volunteers and encourage any interested parties to contact the office staff at 388-6323. No experience needed--just enthusiasm and dedication on a weekly basis!

The Summer Staff
Dan Hanson '92
Matt Hunter '93
Jon Damour '93

We keep office hours of 9-1, 2-5pm, M-F. The station is upstairs in Proctor Hall.

WRMC is pleased to offer, in conjunction with the college's language schools, almost 20 hours of weekly foreign language programming. These shows, hosted in their respective tongues, can be interesting to non-liguists, as they offer a great opportunity to listen to both contemporary and traditional music from around the world.

This Wednesday, members of the WRMC staff will be at a stand on the green in downtown Middlebury all afternoon with copies of this guide, station bumper stickers, refreshments, and new records and CD's to give away. And D.J. Randy McDaniel will be on hand to hear jokes--if you've got a good one, we'd like to record it for broadcast. We'd enjoy hearing comments from our listeners, so stop on by. And visitors are always welcome in the studios during office hours.

We're well into our full-time (7am-12 midnight) summer operations. Below you will find the current schedule. You'll note that there are still some openings in the morning and early afternoon--for the time, these are being covered by the full-time student office staff. They are filling up, but we still need volunteers and encourage any interested parties to contact the office staff at 388-6323. No experience needed--just enthusiasm and dedication on a weekly basis!

Program Notes — for the week of August 5-11

•MONDAY, AUGUST 5•

Jazz Merda, 2-4pm
Appropriately hosted (in Italian) by Mike Matheson and Emily Moore, tune in for jazz standards along with music from the motherland.

Sidewalk Science, 4-5pm
Join Dan Zucker for a look at science news and issues with a blues segue to the 5 o'clock news.

Blues with John Ervin, 5:15-6pm
Tune in for a quick shot of good traditional blues--again at the same time on Tuesdays.

The Randy McDaniel Comedy Show, 8-10pm
Host Randy McDaniel presents classic comedy along with rock classics on the weekly comedy show.

•TUESDAY, AUGUST 6•

Soundings, 10:00-10:30am
"Allegory and Apocalypse"--Steven Goldsmith (English, University of California, Berkley) discusses the representation of apocalypse in the literature of English Romanticism. Gordon Teske (English, Cornell University) discusses allegory from antiquity to the Enlightenment.

The Three Amigos, 6-8pm
Join the three (sans one) for songs you don't hear on the radio anymore

•WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 7•

The Greek-American Times, 3-4pm
Hosts George Doupsas and Costas Provataris bring you Greek, American and European music along with discussions on news from Greece. In both English and Greek!

In the Mood, 4-6pm
Join John Vojtisek for a trip down memory lane--everything from Big Band in its infancy to vocal gala of the 40's, with a special ambiance.

Eclectic Electric, 6-8pm
Diane Desmond plays tunes that the "classic rock" stations rarely play. A few familiar, but many so obscure that they'll sound new to you.

The End of the World with Matt Hunter, 10pm-midnightish
The newest alternative and import sounds.

•THURSDAY, AUGUST 8•

Soundings, 10-10:30am

Summer 1991, Issue #6 This Week on WRMC Monday, August 5

Thanks for picking up This Week on WRMC. Each week we issue a new guide, describing any special programming on a show-by-show basis (as on the reverse). We hope that you will find WRMC a pleasing alternative form of entertainment this summer--this guide will make us more accessible to you.

WRMC is pleased to offer, in conjunction with the college's language schools, over 20 hours of weekly foreign language programming. These shows, hosted in their respective tongues, can be interesting to non-linguists, as they offer a great opportunity to listen to both contemporary and traditional music from around the world. Below you will find the current schedule.

Visitors are welcome during office hours. Whether you've been involved in radio elsewhere or are just curious, we'd be happy to provide a tour of our facilities to any interested individuals or groups. You can call us at 388-6323.

Summer 1991, Issue #1 Friday, June 28

Thanks for picking up this premier issue of This Week on WRMC ! Each week we'll be issuing a new guide, describing any special programming on a show-by-show basis. We hope that you will find WRMC a pleasing alternative form of entertainment this summer--this guide will make us more accessible to you.

After a three-week hiatus since the end of the academic year, WRMC resumed broadcasting last Friday. Since then we've been gearing up to full-time (7am-12 midnight) summer programming with our traditional fine-arts emphasis. On the reverse you will find the schedule at week one. You'll note that there are still openings in the morning and early afternoon--for the time, these are being covered by the full-time student office staff. They are filling up, but we still need volunteers and encourage any interested parties to contact the office staff. No experience needed--just enthusiasm and dedication on a weekly basis! --DH

Thanks for picking up This Week on WRMC. Each week we issue a new guide, describing any special programming on a show-by-show basis (as on the reverse). We hope that you will find WRMC a pleasing alternative form of entertainment this summer--this guide will make us more accessible to you.

WRMC is pleased to offer, in conjunction with the college's language schools, almost 20 hours of weekly foreign language programming. These shows, hosted in their respective tongues, can be interesting to non-liguists, as they offer a great opportunity to listen to both contemporary and traditional music from around the world.

This Wednesday, members of the WRMC staff will be at a stand on the green in downtown Middlebury all afternoon with copies of this guide, station bumper stickers, refreshments, and new records and CD's to give away. And D.J. Randy McDaniel will be on hand to hear jokes--if you've got a good one, we'd like to record it for broadcast. We'd enjoy hearing comments from our listeners, so stop on by. And visitors are always welcome in the studios during office hours.

We're well into our full-time (7am-12 midnight) summer operations. Below you will find the current schedule. You'll note that there are still some openings in the morning and early afternoon--for the time, these are being covered by the full-time student office staff. They are filling up, but we still need volunteers and encourage any interested parties to contact the office staff at 388-6323. No experience needed--just enthusiasm and dedication on a weekly basis!
